

CHIS620 (2–3) A study of the lives and contributions of selected preachers and other church leaders from ancient times to the present.	Arminian thought, millennial schemes in the 19th and early 20th centuries, and the fundamentalist-modernist controversy. Intellectual developments that influenced the development of Seventh-day Adventism are emphasized.
CHIS625 (2–3) A seminar that examines religious toleration and freedom and the relationship of church and state through the reading of primary sources. Includes classic writers such as Augustine, Aquinas, Calvin, Williams, Bayler, Locke, Jefferson, and Mill, and contemporary authors such as Neuhaus and Carter.	CHIS665 (2–3) The Pietistic movement, evangelical awakenings, the Enlightenment, the rise of the modern missionary impulse, the Oxford Movement, the Vatican Councils, and related phenomena,
CHIS628 (3) An examination of the methods of historical investigation and presentation.
CHIS630 (2–3) The history of the Jewish people, religion, literature, and culture since biblical times, with emphasis on relationships to Christianity.	d-2ntist5(th-2Hdritage5(theyC2nter25(the)-25(UniEllen25(theG.-2T2 1 Tf 9
CHIS635 (2–3) An investigation of the African-American experience within the Christian church, with particular focus given to the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Study is given to such critical issues as Regional Conferences.
CHIS638 (2–3) The historical development of the doctrines of covenant, law, and Sabbath and their interrelationships since the early church, with particular attention to aspects that have influenced the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
CHIS640 (2–3) Careers and contributions of selected major reformers and the course of their movements. Repeatable with different reformers or movements.
CHIS650 (2–3) Developments in the 16th and 17th centuries; the Elizabethan Settlement; the Puritan movement and its relation to authority, the kingdom of God, preaching, and the Sabbath; leading Reformers and Puritans and their legacy for today.
CHIS655 (2–3) Topics in the historical development of Methodism and Wesleyan theology. Repeatable.
CHIS660 (2–3) The development of religion in America from colonial times to the present. Emphasis on the role of religion in American culture and on such issues as revivalism, the social concerns of the churches, and the evolution of major denominational families.
CHIS664 (2–3) Special attention given to the evolution of Calvinistic and

