Andrews Graduate Scholarship

New master's-level students or first-time graduate students in advanced programs (for two years only) accepted into programs which require a GRE (or GMAT) and have current GRE (or GMAT) scores at the time of enrollment are eligible. At their school's/department's/program's discretion, some master's-level students may be allowed to enroll for a maximum of one semester before taking the exam, in which case they must complete the exam prior to the start of the following term after initial enrollment in order to be eligible (required even if the student does not register for coursework that term). Scholarship money will not be applied retroactively to any coursework started prior to taking the exam.

The scholarship is a percentage of tuition and is awarded as follows:

Tuition Reduction	Combined Verbal and Quantitative GRE Score for Tests Taken Before August 1, 2011	Combined Verbal and Quantitative GRE Score for Tests Taken After August 1, 2011	GMAT Score (MBA students only)
	>1000	>297	>500
	>1200	>308	>550
	>1300	>314	>600

The scholarship will be awarded for the entire master's program but only while the student is in good standing. Students who are placed on academic probation will lose the scholarship for the remainder of the program. The scholarship will not be available for programs that have already discounted their tuition below the standard master's tuition rate, except where the scholarship is greater than the discount, then the difference will be awarded as a scholarship. The scholarship will be applied by the Office of Student Financial Services at the time of a student's registration.

Federal Aid

Students should read the General Information, p. , and Satisfactory Academic Progress sections, p. , to determine their eligibility for financial aid.

Federal Direct Loans are available to graduate students. To apply for this aid, refer to p. , General Information, and the Financial Aid Chart, p. .

Institutional Aid

Student Financial Services forms need not be completed for students to apply for the Andrews graduate grant or scholarship; students must apply directly to the graduate dean or department head of the school/program. All aid received by the student (except assistantships), however, is taken into account when determining eligibility for a student loan and a Michigan Tuition Grant.

Grants and Scholarships

Grant, scholarship, and assistantship funds are available through the offices of the various academic divisions and department chairs.
