EDAL888  $ D (0)

Registration for this title constitutes full-time status.

EDUC560                                    $ (0)

When participants request reactivation, they will register for Degree Reactivation and pay the associated fee.

EDUC670                                    (0)

EDUC870                                    $ (0)

LEAD525  D (2

LEAD630  $ D (2)

Intensive introduction to the Leadership program. Focus on leadership concepts, effective instruction, principles of research, and skills relating to the completion of the program. Graded S/U.

LEAD635  D (4)

Preparation and submission of LLP to faculty for approval. Prerequisite: LEAD630.

LEAD636  D (2  3)

Participants review the literature, discuss the findings in study groups and with faculty, and provide scholarly feedback related to assigned topics that address foundations of leadership and worldviews.