Time Spent Preparing for Class

Surveys report the average weekly class preparation time for our students compared to students in our comparison group.

Reading and Writing

Surveys survey the number of hours our students spent reading or writing courses and the average number of pages assigned writing compared to students in our comparison group. Each analysis is calculated from two or more separate surveys.

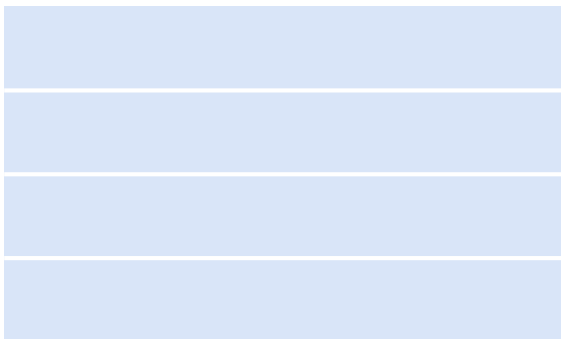

Challenging Students to Do Their Best Work

Now at Andrews University, students are challenged to do their best work. Assignments range from projects to essays to research papers.

Academic Emphasis

How do students spend their time in student organizations? How do they spend significant time studying and on academic work? Assignments include research papers, projects, and presentations. So, an emphasis on academic work.
