

ANDREWS UNIVERSITY DONATION POLICY

Andrews University is committed to being a good citizen and supporting public service as is demonstrated through its faculty and staff engaged in public service, support of activities such as WAUS and programming in the Howard Performing Arts Center. The University also provides a limited amount of funds to support various local programs.

The University has designated the Vice President for Advancement and his staff to develop and maintain outside relationships. Just as all solicitation activity is coordinated through the Advancement offices of the University, all donations made in the name of the University are coordinated through the Advancement office.

Because Andrews University receives significant donations and subsidies, it needs to use and manage its resources very ca
